Overview

Discover the best of the Barossa Valley, where tradition and innovation meet in Australia's premier wine region. Taste iconic vintages at historic wineries like Yalumba and Langmeil, then explore bold, contemporary styles at boutique producers such as Artisans of Barossa and David Franz. Savour a seasonal multi-course lunch with wine pairings at the acclaimed FINO Seppeltsfield before indulging in premium tastings at world-renowned estates like Two Hands and Torbreck. A perfect blend of heritage, flavour, and elegance, this is the ultimate Barossa wine journey.

Tour Highlights

- Yalumba Winery – Historic Barossa winery, one of Australia's oldest, famous for traditional regional wines.
- Langmeil Winery – Known for the world's oldest Shiraz vineyard, offering heritage-rich tastings.
- Artisans of Barossa – A collective of small-batch winemakers showcasing modern and innovative Barossa wines.
- David Franz Winery – Boutique winery offering creative wine expressions and modern styles.
- FINO Seppeltsfield – Renowned restaurant offering a seasonal multi-course lunch paired with wines.
- Two Hands Wines – Premium winery specializing in high-quality Shiraz, recognized internationally.
- Torbreck Vintners – Famous for powerful red wines made from old-vine vineyards, a top Barossa name.
