Tour Itinerary

Day 1:- Edinburgh

The train departs Edinburgh in the afternoon, heading west past Loch Lomond and the great wilderness of Rannoch Moor. Take time to settle into your cabin and savour the views as we make our way to Spean Bridge for the night. As evening sets in, enjoy a splendid informal dinner and entertainment in the Observation Car.

Dinner

Day 2:- Glenfinnan

This morning the train continues west, sweeping past Britain's highest mountain en-route. Look out for the majestic Ben Nevis at soft white beaches and breath taking views of the Cuillin mountain range. Lunch is served as the train travels back to Fort William crossing over the iconic Glenfinnan Viaduct. This afternoon presents two choices. Join our Highlander to explore Glenfinnan and discover the history of Bonnie Prince Charlie's rebellion. Alternatively accompany our mountain guides for a hike through stunning Glen Nevis to the Steall Waterfall. Indulge in an informal dinner followed by an evening of spirited Scottish music in the Observation Car.

Day 3:- Oban

Today you will arrive in Oban, the gateway to the Western Isles. Breakfast will be followed by an exclusive visit to the Oban Distillery, producer of one of the world's finest single malts. Afterwards, we cross to the Isle of Mull to visit the iconic 13th century Duart Castle, historic seat of the Clan Maclean. Return to the Royal Scotsman, and prepare for tonight's fabulous formal dinner as the train heads back east towards Kilmarnock.

Day 4:- Wemyss Bay

Savour a leisurely breakfast this morning as the train journeys to Wemyss Bay. After lunch, disembark in Sanguhar for a visit Drumlanrig Castle, the Dumfriesshire home of the Duke and Duchess of Buccleuch and Queensberry. Back on board, indulge in an informal dinner followed by traditional entertainment.

Day 5:- Nith Valley

Travel South this morning to Wemyss Bay on the Firth of Clyde and board the ferry for the short sail to the Isle of Bute. Spend an intriguing afternoon at Mount Stunt House, one of Britain's most astonishing Victorian Gothic houses. Return to the train for your final dinner aboard, a formal affair and gastronomic treat. Then make your way to the Observation Car for musical farewell.

Day 6:- Edinburgh

Enjoy a leisurely as the train makes its way back to Edinburgh.
