Tour Itinerary

Day 1:- Arrive Amansara, Siem Reap

Meet and Greet by Amansara representative. Private transfer from Siem Reap airport to Amansara Resort.

Dinner

Day 2:- Amansara

Amansara lies at the threshold of Angkor Wat – the vast, Unesco-protected ruins of the once-mighty Khmer empire – giving guests privileged access to the spiritual and historic riches of the world's largest temple complex. Explore the site on foot, by bicycle or custom-fitted remork. Excursion to Angkor temples with English speaking guide and Remork transport (excluding temple pass - USD37 pp)

Breakfast Dinner

Day 3:- Amansara

Today is the day for your own leisure, perhaps you may take a cruise along the time-frozen floating villages of Tonlé Sap lake, and discover the rich Buddhist culture of Siem Reap – directly from the monks who shape it or have a second visit to Angkor Wat.

Breakfast Dinner

Day 4:- Depart Amansara

After breakfast, time at leisure before checking out and transferring to the airport for departing flights.

Once a residence for guests of King Sihanouk, Amansara is a masterpiece of 1960's New Khmer architecture just ten minutes from the entrance to Cambodia's Angkor Wat Unesco World Heritage Site. Set in spiritual Siem Reap. Amansara's manicured gardens, a tranquil spa, curvilinear pool and canopy of mature trees add to tangible tranquility that inspired its name – 'heavenly peace'.
