Tour Itinerary

Day 1 :- Arrival in Reykjavik

Upon your arrival at Keflavik International Airport, we'll greet you and transport you to your lodging in Reykjavík.

After a long flight, a visit to a neighborhood geothermal pool is a refreshing way to unwind and experience Icelandic daily life. You can also explore the old city center, visit museums, or relax in a cozy café. Dinner is at your own pace, with Reykjavik offering numerous dining options to help you get better acquainted with the capital.

Day 2 :- Reykjavik - Countryside area

Breakfast at your hotel, then take a tour along Iceland's South Shore, known for its volcanic mountains and waterfalls. Visit Hveragerdi's geothermal park to see how Icelanders use volcanic energy, boiling eggs in hot springs and trying fresh rye bread baked in geothermal steam. Continue to Hvolsvollur for the LAVA Center's exhibits on volcanoes and earthquakes.

See the fairy tale-like Seljalandsfoss waterfall and the impressive Skogafoss waterfall. Drive past the Eyjafjoll mountain range and visit Reynisfjara, a black volcanic sand beach with unique rock formations. End the day with dinner and an overnight stay in the Kirkjubaejarklaustur area.

Day 3 :- Countryside area

Start your day with breakfast at the hotel. Today, you'll explore some of Iceland's most picturesque spots, beginning with a visit to Jokulsarlon Glacier Lagoon. Enjoy a guided amphibian boat tour among floating icebergs, and then take a stroll along Diamond Beach, where sparkling ice chunks adorn the shore like diamonds. The group will also visit the smaller Fjallsarlon glacier lagoon.

After a lunch break (on your own), continue to the scenic Skaftafell area of Vatnajokull National Park, named after Iceland's largest glacier.

Conclude the day with dinner and an overnight stay in the Kirkjubaejarklaustur area.
