Located in the village of Bilal in Wadi Essair, a suburb of Amman, this modern building protects the tomb of the esteemed companion Bilal ibn Rabah. Next, explore the Desert Castles in the eastern desert of Jordan. Visit the Qasr Amra baths, renowned for their fresco art and zodiac dome, the fortress-like Qasr Karana, and the black basalt fort of Azraq, which features Roman and medieval Islamic architecture. Proceed to the Sahabi Tree, a 1,500-year-old tree situated on the historic trade route between Mecca and Damascus. Legend has it that the young Muhammad, traveling with his uncle Abu Talib, rested under this tree at age 12, where the monk Bahira prophesied his future prophethood.
