Day 2 :- Larnaca city tour

Breakfast at the hotel before embarking on a captivating city tour. Explore the rich history and preserved architecture of Larnaca, visiting iconic landmarks like the Phinikoudes waterfront, medieval fort, Saint Lazarus and Faneromeni churches, the aqueduct, salt lake, and Halal Sultan Tekke. The tour provides insight into the city's cultural heritage with fascinating stories and photo opportunities. Travel to Lefkara Village, renowned for its world-class Cypriot embroidery, "Lefkaritika," listed on UNESCO's Intangible Cultural Heritage. Discover the village's history, including Leonardo da Vinci's visit for embroidery for Milan Cathedral. Indulge in lokum, traditional confections, and explore stone-built structures. Delve into the secrets of Halloumi, Cyprus' beloved cheese, learning its origins and culinary uses. Enjoy a hands-on experience making and tasting homemade Halloumi under the guidance of an expert cook, immersing yourself in the island's cheese tradition. Return to Larnaca and overnight at the hotel

Day 3 :- Larnaca - TROODOS - KYKKOS AND KAKOPETRIA - MOUNTAIN VILLAGES

Breakfast at the hotel. Proceed to an exploration of the Troodos Mountains' timeless villages, captivating nature, and medieval monasteries. Traverse the Omodos Village's cobbled streets, leading to the Holy Cross Monastery, Cyprus's oldest, with arched galleries and rugged stone walls. Another highlight is the Kykkos Monastery, dedicated to the Virgin Mary, boasting an iconic image believed to perform miracles and offering breathtaking mountain views. Experience the best vantage point atop Throni Hill, where you'll find the tomb of revered political and religious leader Archbishop Makarios III, accompanied by a panoramic highland view. Enjoy lunch at a traditional tavern before delving into Cyprus's rich winemaking history, dating back almost 6000 years. Explore a vineyard, learning the secrets of cultivating vines and making exquisite wines, sampling both young and mature varieties like Xynisteri, and savoring the boldness and rich structures of red wines. Return to Larnaca and overnight at the hotel

Breakfast Lunch Dinner

Day 4 :- Larnaca - KOURION OLD TOWN - PAPHOS CITY TOUR

Breakfast at the hotel. Embark on a fascinating journey through time to the ancient civilization of Kourion, a once influential city-state now lost to history after a devastating earthquake in 365 AD. Explore the meticulously restored Greco-Roman theater and admire mosaic floors depicting scenes from ancient life. Discover the Sanctuary of Apollon Hylates and delve into Kourion's rich history at the Archaeological Museum. In Paphos, travel to the Rock of Aphrodite, the mythical birthplace of the goddess of love, and explore the UNESCO-listed Paphos Archaeological Park, featuring astonishing Roman villa mosaics and the Tomb of the Kings. Visit Paphos Castle, St. Paul's Pillar archaeological complex, and the coastal village of Geroskipou, renowned for producing the sweet delicacy "lokum." Immerse yourself in history, legends, and local flavors on this captivating tour. Return to Larnaca and overnight at the hotel

Day 5 :- Larnaca - Nicosia city tour

Breakfast at the hotel. Embark on a unique exploration of Nicosia, a city famously divided between the Republic of Cyprus (Greek part) and the Republic of Northern Cyprus, recognized solely by Turkey. Witness the historic Venetian walls and Famagusta Gate, bearing witness to the city's events since the 16th century. Visit the Archbishop's Palace, home to an impressive collection of religious icons, and traverse Eleftheria Square. Cross the border into Northern Cyprus, where you'll discover original Christian and Muslim places of worship, including the 11th-century Cathedral of St. John the Theologian and the Selimiye Mosque (formerly Cathedral of Saint Sophia). Enjoy a traditional tavern lunch before strolling through the old city's winding streets, exploring traditional houses, craft shops, and popular cafes and restaurants, immersing yourself in the diverse cultural richness of both parts of Nicosia. Return to Larnaca and overnight at the hotel

Day 6 :- Larnaca - Famagusta

Breakfast at the hotel. Delve into the transformation of Famagusta, a historically rich neighborhood altered by the development of the Turkish Cypriot Republic. Commence your journey at Othello Castle, a 14th-century marvel where Shakespeare's famous play comes to life. Explore the Lala Mustafa Pasha Mosque, a 13th-century Gothic example marked by war, disasters, and religious conversion. Uncover the ancient city-state of Salamis, witnessing its diverse history through occupations by Phoenicians, Assyrians, Greeks, Persians, Macedonians, Romans, and Ottomans since the 11th century BC. Visit Saint Barnabas Monastery, dating back to the 5th century, now hosting museums abandoned after the change to Turkish Cypriot rule. Conclude the tour in Varosha, a once-popular tourist destination turned ghost city since 1974, where luminaries like Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton frequented. Wrap up the day with a relaxing beach visit, enjoying a refreshing swim in the warm turquoise waters of Cyprus. Return to Larnaca and overnight at the hotel
