In this magnificent setting, visit the ancient open-air theatre that can still seat 14,000 spectators. Later, enjoy the included excursion to the archaeological site and the museum of Mycenae, a city fortress cursed by the gods but rich in gold and warrior kings. Travel into the Peloponnese to Sparta, where history hangs between reality and legend.

Breakfast Dinner

Day 5 :- Sparta – Mystra – Olympia

Day 6 :- Olympia – Patras – Delphi

Explore Olympia, where the athletes of antiquity performed in honour of the king of deities. Spend some free time in this pretty town, or learn more about the history of the Olympic Games on the optional archaeological site sightseeing tour. Enjoy free time in town or join the optional morning sightseeing tour of the archaeological site in Delphi, where the oracle of Apollo spoke. It was the site of the omphalos, the ‘navel of the world’. On to Kalambaka.
