Day 2 :- Xi'an

After breakfast, proceed to Terra Cotta Warriors. The Terracotta Army is a collection of terracotta sculptures depicting the armies of Qin Shi Huang, the first emperor of China. It is a form of funerary art buried with the emperor in 210–209 BCE with the purpose of protecting him in his afterlife. Transfer to Xi'an City Wall, The Xi'an City Wall is a historical fortification located in Xi'an, China. It is one of the oldest and best-preserved city walls in China and has a history dating back over 600 years. Construction of the Xi'an City Wall began in the 14th century during the Ming Dynasty (1368-1644) and was completed in the early 16th century. It was built on the foundations of earlier Tang Dynasty walls that once surrounded the city. Continue to Guangren Temple. Guangren Temple, also called Guangren Lama Temple, is a Buddhist temple located in Lianhu District of Xi'an, Shaanxi, China. It is the only Tibetan Buddhist temple in Shaanxi. Transfer to Drum Tower Square, Drum Tower Square is a prominent landmark located in the city of Xi'an, China. The square is situated in the heart of the city, near the Bell Tower, another iconic structure. Together, the Drum Tower and Bell Tower are significant historical and cultural symbols of Xi'an. Huimin Street, Right next to the Drum Tower, a bustling area full of streets offering an abundance of Muslim street food, restaurants and different shops, perfect for buying souvenirs. Muslim Street or The Muslim Quarter, is a paved road with blue-gray flagstones and shaded by trees, along which the archaized stores of the Ming (1368-1644) and the Qing (1644-1911) dynasties are in line, and they're all operated by the Hui ethnic people. Back to hotel.
