Tour Itinerary

Day 1 :- ARRIVAL OSAKA

Using the JR WEST PASS from Kansai airport to Osaka station (about 50 minutes). Make your own arrangement to the hotel for check-in. (If you are already in Osaka, no pass is needed today as you explore within the city)

Places suggestions (entrance fee not included):

- Osaka Castle: One of Japan's most famous landmarks, it played a major role in the unification of Japan during the 16th century.
- Dotonbori: A vibrant entertainment district famous for its neon lights, street food, and iconic billboards.

Day 2 :- OSAKA – KYOTO

After breakfast at the hotel, take the train from Osaka station to Kyoto station (about 40 minutes). Meet at the JR Kyoto Station Karasuma Exit Kyoto Sightseeing Bus Terminal by 0950AM. Proceed to the day tour as below:

- Tenryu-ji Temple: A UNESCO World Heritage site and one of Kyoto's most important Zen temples.
- Arashiyama: A scenic district on the western outskirts of Kyoto, known for its bamboo groves, picturesque Togetsukyo Bridge, and beautiful seasonal landscapes, especially during cherry blossom and autumn foliage seasons.
- Kinkakuji: A Zen Buddhist temple covered in gold leaf, Kinkaku-ji is one of Kyoto's most iconic sights.
- Fushimi Inari Shrine: Famous for its thousands of vermilion torii gates that form paths leading up Mount Inari, this Shinto shrine dedicated to Inari, the god of rice.

After tour, drop off at the meeting point. Make your own arrangement back to the hotel. (5 minute walking distance)
