Day 2 :- Chiba - Tokyo

After breakfast, proceed to Nihon-ji is a Buddhist temple in the city of Kyonan, Chiba Prefecture, Japan. The temple is located on the slopes of Mount Nokogiri and is known for its Nihon-ji Daibutsu. Nihon-ji was established as a Hoss? sect temple, was transferred to Tendai sect, and is now a S?t? Zen temple. Since its founding the temple has fallen into ruin and been revived numerous times. The continue to Mother Farm or Mother Bokujo, is one of Chiba's most popular destinations, especially for kids. Located right in the center of the Boso Peninsula, it is a wide-open area full of animals, activities, and great views of the Boso Hills. Proceed to Tokyo then go to Umihotaru Parking area Built on a 650m island (Kisarazu artificial island) surrounded by 360° of water, the "Umihotaru Parking Area" is a rather unusual parking area, even by international standards. It stands five levels tall, with parking on levels 1 through 3, and commercial facilities on levels 4 and 5. This is the only shopping mall on the sea where you can enjoy panoramic 360° views of Tokyo Bay, as well as many shops, restaurants and services. Transfer to hotel for check in.

Breakfast

Day 3 :- Tokyo

After breakfast, transfer to Asakusa, Asakusa retains the vibe of an older Tokyo, with traditional craft shops and street-food stalls along Nakamise Street near the ancient Sens?-ji temple. Shopping at Nakamise shopping street. Nakamise is the most famous shopping street in Asakusa. The street runs for 250 meters on the main approach to Sensoji Temple and is lined on both sides with shops selling traditional souvenirs, snacks, and sweets. Proceed to Sky tree, the Tokyo Skytree is a television broadcasting tower and landmark of Tokyo. It is the centerpiece of the Tokyo Skytree Town in the Sumida City Ward. Continue to Akihabara. Akihabara also called Akiba after a former local shrine, is a district in central Tokyo that is famous for its many electronic shops and has also gained recognition as the center of Japan's otaku (diehard fan) culture. Many shops and establishments devote to anime and manga are dispersed among the electronic stores in the district. Visit to Meiji Shrine is a shrine dedicated to the deified spirits of Emperor Meiji and his consort, Empress Shoken. Located just beside the JR Yamanote Line's busy Harajuku Station, Meiji Shrine and adjacent Yoyogi Park make up a large forested area within the densely built-up city and offer walking paths for a relaxing stroll away from the concrete. Harajuku refers to the area around Tokyo's Harajuku Station, which is between Shinjuku and Shibuya on the Yamanote Line. Continue to Shibuya crossing and transfer back to hotel.

Breakfast

Day 4 :- Oshino Hakkai

After breakfast, proceed to Oshino Hakkai is a touristy set of eight ponds in Oshino, a small village in the Fuji Five Lake region, located between Lake Kawaguchiko and Lake Yamanakako on the site of a former sixth lake that dried out several hundred years ago. The ponds are fed by snow melt from the slopes of nearby Mount Fuji that filters down the mountain through porous layers of lava for over 1000 years, resulting in very clear spring water that is revered by the locals. Next to Mt Fuji 5th station then go to Owakudani, is the area around a crater created during the last eruption of Mount Hakone some 3000 years ago. Today, much of the area is an active volcanic zone where sulfurous fumes, hot springs and hot rivers can be experienced. Next to Lake Ashi (Cruise), Lake Ashinoko was formed in the caldera of Mount Hakone after the volcano's last eruption 3000 years ago. Transfer back to hotel.
