Day 10 :- Kanas

After breakfast, drive to the Kanas Lake Natural Reserve, known as the Switzerland of the East (including fish watching pavilion, cruise and so on). Kanas scenic area encompasses Kanas Lake, Moon Bay, Kanas Fish Viewing Platform, ?Wolong Bay, and other renowned scenic spots. It is a comprehensive scenic area integrating glaciers, lakes, forests, grasslands, and rivers. Kanas Lake is the core of the scenic area, renowned as the “fairyland on earth, the garden of God”. The lake originates from glacial melt water and local precipitation. With an altitude of 1,374 meters above sea level and an area of 45.73 square kilometers, it is one of the deepest moraine barrier lakes in China. The combination of natural landscapes and historical and cultural relics within the scenic area, such as Genghis Khan’s West Expedition army point and ancient rock paintings, showcases rich natural and human values. Kanas, in Mongolian, means “beautiful and mysterious lake”. Here, not only is there the magnificent natural landscape but also mysterious legends, such as the “water monster” legend of Kanas Lake, adding a touch of mystery to this place. The optimal seasons to visit Kanas are June and September each year, when the scenery is particularly enchanting.
