Tour Itinerary

Day 1 :- Arrival in La Paz – City of Lights at the Top of the World

Welcome to Bolivia! Upon arrival at El Alto International Airport—the highest international airport in the world at 4,080 meters above sea level—you'll be met by a driver for your transfer to the hotel.

As you descend into the city via a scenic motorway, witness a breathtaking panorama of La Paz Valley, its twinkling lights cascading down the Andean slopes like a starry waterfall. A gentle introduction to a city unlike any other.

Day 2 :- La Paz

After breakfast, explore La Paz, one of the Seven Urban Wonders of the World. Wander through vibrant market streets filled with handicrafts and Aymara witchcraft artifacts, and visit landmarks like San Francisco Church, the Gold Museum, and Plaza Murillo. Take in panoramic views from the Killi Killi viewpoint and see a replica of a Tiwanaku temple. End with a visit to the surreal Valle de la Luna (Moon Valley) and a scenic cable car ride offering stunning city views. Overnight in La Paz

Breakfast

Day 3 :- Depart La Paz – Arrive Uyuni (by local flight)

This morning, take a short flight from La Paz to Uyuni, the gateway to one of Earth's most breathtaking natural wonders. Begin in Colchani, where local artisans showcase traditional salt production, then venture into the vast Uyuni Salt Flats, a mesmerizing 10,000 km<sup>2</sup> expanse of gleaming white salt. Explore Isla Incahuasi, an island with volcanic rock and towering cacti, before heading to Coquesa, a village at the base of Tunupa Volcano. Visit the ancient chullpares burial towers, then return to Uyuni as the sun sets, casting golden and lavender hues over the salt desert. Overnight in Uyuni.

Breakfast Lunch Dinner

Day 4 :- Uyuni – La Paz (by local flight)

After breakfast, transfer to Uyuni airport for your flight back to La Paz. From there, travel 72 km west across the Altiplano to the ancient archaeological site of Tiwanaku, one of South America's most significant pre-Columbian civilizations. Explore the majestic ruins, including the Temple of Kalasasaya, the Puerta del Sol (Gate of the Sun), and the Akapana Pyramid. Visit the semi-subterranean temple with its mysterious stone heads, and admire the Ponce and El Fraile monoliths. The tour also includes two museums showcasing remarkable artifacts that highlight the artistic and spiritual heritage of Tiwanaku. Overnight in La Paz.

Day 5 :- Depart La Paz

After breakfast, your driver will transfer you to El Alto International Airport for your onward flight, as you bid farewell to the high-altitude wonders and ancient echoes of Bolivia.
