Tour Itinerary

Day 1 :- Arrive Incheon Airport – Jeju Island

Upon arrival at Incheon Airport, you will meet your driver and transfer to Gimpo Airport for a domestic flight to Jeju Island, which takes approximately 1 hour and 15 minutes. After arriving at Jeju Airport, the tour begins with a visit to Dodubong Rainbow Coastal Road, a scenic coastal route famous for its colorful cliffs. You will then explore Dongmun Market, a traditional local market offering fresh produce and a taste of Jeju's vibrant local life.

Day 2 :- Jeju Island

The day's tour begins with Seongsan Ilchulbong Peak, a UNESCO-listed sunrise crater offering panoramic views of the island. Next, you will visit Seongeup Folk Village, a well-preserved traditional Jeju village, followed by Seopjikoji Hill, a scenic coastal area known for dramatic cliffs and fields of wildflowers. The cultural experiences continue with a live Taekwondo performance, showcasing Korea's traditional martial art, and a camel ride along scenic paths, providing a unique outdoor adventure on Jeju Island.

Breakfast

Day 3 :- Jeju Island – Seoul – Gangwondo

After hotel check-out, take a domestic flight back to Seoul. Upon arrival at Gimpo Airport, the tour continues with a visit to Nami Island, famous for its tree-lined paths and picturesque scenery, with the ferry ticket included. The day concludes with a visit to Daegwallyeong Samyang Ranch, where you can enjoy expansive pastures, grazing animals, and family-friendly activities amidst the scenic landscapes of Gangwondo.

Breakfast

Day 4 :- Gangwondo – Seoul

After hotel check-out, the day begins with Gwangmyeong Cave, a unique underground attraction featuring art exhibits, a wine cellar, and themed installations (closed on Mondays). Next, you will visit Everland, Korea's largest amusement park, with a free pass included. During the winter season, the Everland visit will be replaced with Lotte World, also with a free pass, offering thrilling rides and entertainment.

Breakfast

Day 5 :- Seoul

The day starts with a visit to a cosmetics shop and liver health supplement center, exploring popular Korean skincare and wellness products. This is followed by a DIY Korean gochujang (chili paste) and kimchi-making experience, offering hands-on participation in traditional Korean cuisine. You will then visit Namsangol Hanok Village, a preserved area showcasing traditional Korean houses, before concluding the day in Myeongdong, one of Seoul's most famous shopping districts, including duty-free stores.

Breakfast

Day 6 :- Seoul

The day is free for you to explore Seoul at your own pace. No tour or vehicle is provided, allowing you the opportunity to enjoy personal activities, sightseeing, or shopping.

Breakfast

Day 7 :- Seoul

You have another free day at leisure to explore the city, relax, or revisit favorite spots from the tour.
