Tour Itinerary

Day 1 :- Paris

Welcome to Paris! On arrival head to your hotel for a two-night stay, then get out to explore the city with your included Hop-on Hop-off pass. In the evening why not speak to any of our knowledgeable Rail Experts about a night at the world-famous Moulin Rouge? (Overnight Paris)

Day 2 :- Paris

It's a day to remember today, as you explore the very best the city has to offer. Included for you is a skip-the-line tour to the very top of the Eiffel Tower, a one-hour scenic, seine cruise, and skip-the-line tickets to the world-famous Louvre Museum. You also have another day of exploring the city with your handy hop-on hop-off pass which gives you the best views of the beautiful boulevards and arrondissements that make Paris so famous. (Overnight Paris)

Breakfast

Day 3 :- Paris to Nice

Board a train to Nice, which offers beautiful beaches, luxurious seaside dining, and plenty of opportunity for shopping and sightseeing. Enjoy visiting the Chagall and Matisse galleries to discover the colourful works of these two famous French artists. Wander through Vieux Nice to discover traditional French architecture and the daily markets selling flowers, gifts and fresh Nicoise delicacies. (Overnight in Nice)

Breakfast

Day 4 :- Nice

On your included city tour, explore the best attractions and landmarks the city has to offer at a leisurely pace. Highlights include Promenade de Anglais, the ruins at Castle Hill, and much more. (Overnight in Nice)

Breakfast

Day 5 :- Nice to Aix-en-Provence

Travel to Aix en Provence, a city which is surrounded by picturesque countryside and famous for its fantastically preserved architecture, Aix-en-Provence has an abundance of sightseeing opportunities. Take a walk through the Cours Mirabeau and visit the 17th and 18th century mansions, decorated with ancient fountains and beautiful flowers. (Overnight in Aix en Provence)

Breakfast

Day 6 :- Aix-en-Provence

If travelling during July and August, you'll enjoy a tour of the nearby lavender fields which make this area so famous. The incredible stretches of lavender provide a riot of colour and scent which is an experience to behold. A visit to a local farmers' shop also provides the opportunity to take a little bit of this very special product home with you. Outside of this time, enjoy another day exploring Aix and perhaps speak to your sales consultant about a tour of the local hilltop villages of Luberon. (Overnight in Aix-en-Provence)

Breakfast

Day 7 :- Aix-En-Provence to Avignon

Board a TGV train from Aix-en-Provence to Avignon. Passing olive and lemon groves on your way and enjoying a taste of the Côtes du Rhône landscape before arriving. Enjoy discovering the fascinating and atmospheric city of Avignon. The city, established behind medieval walls at the side of the sparkling Rhone River, boasts immense natural beauty and fascinating UNESCO World Heritage listed monuments. (Overnight in Avignon)

Breakfast

Day 8 :- Avignon

Make use of the combined tickets included for the 14th century Papal home 'Palais des Papes' and the ancient Pont d'Avignon, then wander the lovely streets of the old centre which are full of artists' galleries. Visit the colourful outdoor market on the Place Pie, or come during July when the city hums with thousands of visitors to its annual theatre festival. Explore the nearby Petit Palais and Palais du Roure museums, and experience the city's thriving street scene. Spend time wandering through the ancient alleys and courtyards of private mansions before relaxing with a glass of local wine in one of the fantastic restaurants Avignon has to offer. (Overnight in Avignon)

Breakfast

Day 9 :- Your Journey Ends in Paris

Check out of your hotel and travel back to Paris to continue with your onward travels.
