Make sure your camera batteries are charged for today, as the views really will be spectacular! In the morning enjoy a silent cruise along the beautiful Lysefjord. Pass the mighty Hengifoss waterfall before hopping off and taking a short bus ride to the Preikestolen Cabin to collect your packed lunch. Then it's off, following the well-marked, and moderate trail up to Pulpit Rock itself. The hike is around two-hours each way, through bogs, and forest, but the views from the top are second to none.
