Tour Itinerary

Day 1 :- Arrival Chitose Airport - Sapporo

Upon arrival at the New Chitose Airport, meet the driver and transfer to hotel in Sapporo.

Breakfast

Day 2 :- Sapporo - Otaru - Sapporo

After breakfast at the hotel, proceed for a tour of Otaru, beginning with the picturesque Otaru Canal, a romantic waterway flanked by historic stone warehouses and vintage gas lamps. Stroll along Sakaimachi Street, a charming preservation street lined with glassware shops, sweet boutiques, and traditional cafes. Visit the historic Kitaichi Glass 3-gokan, an iconic craft shop housed in a former fishing warehouse, before exploring the enchanting Otaru Music Box Museum, where thousands of delicate music boxes fill a grand Victorian-era hall. Continue to Otaru Tenguyama Ropeway for sweeping panoramic views over the snow-dusted town and Ishikari Bay. In the late afternoon, return to Sapporo and enjoy free leisure time exploring Tanukikoji Shopping Arcade, Hokkaido’s oldest and longest indoor shopping street.

Breakfast

Day 3 :- Sapporo - Asahikawa

After breakfast at the hotel, proceed for a tour of Asahikawa. Visit the famous Asahiyama Zoo, celebrated for its unique enclosures that let visitors observe animals from dynamic, natural perspectives—including the beloved winter penguin parade and polar bears diving through ice. Next, visit the charming Ueno Farm, a beautiful Hokkaido-style garden with English landscaping influences, offering picturesque winter scenery and rustic architecture. Continue to Ramen Village, a lively complex housing eight of Asahikawa’s most renowned ramen shops, perfect for savoring authentic soy-sauce-based Hokkaido ramen. End the afternoon with a visit to Otokoyama Sake Brewery & Museum, where you can discover centuries-old sake brewing traditions, explore historical exhibits, and sample award-winning local sakes.

Breakfast

Day 4 :- Asahikawa

After breakfast at the hotel, transfer to Kamui Ski Links, Hokkaido’s premier ski resort renowned for its exceptionally light, powdery snow and uncrowded, wide slopes. Spend a thrilling day enjoying the slopes with an included 1-Day Lift Ticket, full Ski Attire (jacket and pants) , and complete Ski or Snowboard Gear Rental. Whether you are carving down gentle beginner trails or taking on advanced courses, the expansive alpine setting and pristine powder offer an unforgettable winter sports experience. In the afternoon, return to your hotel in Asahikawa to rest and unwind.

Breakfast

Day 5 :- Asahikawa - Furano

After breakfast at the hotel, proceed for a Biei Blue Pond (Illumination), a mystical cobalt-blue pond surrounded by submerged larch trees that transforms into a fairy-tale spectacle under evening illuminations. Next, admire the striking Shirahige Waterfall, where icy cobalt-blue waters cascade dramatically into the Biei River against a backdrop of snow and frozen icicles. Continue to Ningle Terrace, a magical village of illuminated wooden craft cabins nestled in a dense forest, offering handcrafted souvenirs and warm, cozy vibes. Visit Furano Cheese Factory to observe the artisanal cheese-making process and sample local dairy delicacies. Conclude your day with a stop at the iconic Seven Stars Tree, standing proudly on the snow-covered rolling hills of Biei. After the tour, transfer to your onsen hotel in Furano for a traditional hot spring soak and a sumptuous dinner.

Breakfast Dinner

Day 6 :- Furano - Sapporo

After breakfast at the hotel, proceed for a tour of Shiroi Koibito Park, a delightful chocolate-themed park and factory where Hokkaido’s most famous sweet treat—the iconic Shiroi Koibito cookie—is crafted. Next, admire Odori Park, the expansive central green corridor of Sapporo that comes alive with snow sculptures and winter lights, framed by the towering Sapporo TV Tower. Visit the historic Former Hokkaido Government Office Building (Red Brick Office), an American neo-Baroque landmark steeped in pioneering history, followed by a photo stop at the iconic Sapporo Clock Tower, a beloved symbol of the city dating back to 1878. Continue to Hokkaido Shrine, a sacred Shinto sanctuary nestled in tranquil woodlands, before heading to Jozankei Hot Springs (Onsen) for an evening of relaxation in rejuvenating mineral-rich waters surrounded by snowy mountain scenery.
